

Requirements that I've elicited as of yet:

- * The system shall let users create their own workspaces with a subject, a name and a description.
- * The system shall let users edit their own workspaces.
- * The system shall let users delete their own workspaces.
- * The workspaces shall let users discuss the specified topic with a discussion interface.
- * The workspaces shall let users observe who are the current lecturers in that workspace.
- * The system shall filter workspaces when the subjects are selected from the browse menu.
- * The system shall let users search for their desired subjects with a search bar.
- * The system shall display user profiles when they are clicked on.
- * The user profiles shall let other users observe workspaces created and messages sent by the profile owner.
- * The system shall let users delete their own messages.
- * The system shall ask for user authentication for any creation operation.
- * The system shall ask for user confirmation for any deletion operation.
- * The system shall have user registration functionality.
- * The system shall have user login functionality.
- * The system shall let users award other users with a merit point.
- * The workspace structure shall let users participate the subject in a hierarchical way, if users deem it necessary.